Call to Worship

Good morning, (Evening)

We would like to welcome everyone joining us today, especially any visitors. We are glad you are here.

James and John ask Jesus if they can sit on his right and on his left in his glory. In the world view, the great ones are the rulers. In Jesus' view, the servants are the truly great ones. Real glory doesn't come from lording it over others, but from serving others

What does unselfish service look like in your parish, work or home? Could it change the world in some way?

Intercessions

For the Church: that we embrace both the dying and the rising in our daily lives and grow into a fuller sharing of new life in Christ. We pray to the Lord.

For the grace of detachment: that God will free us from the bonds of our egos and attraction to power and prestige so that we may make service of others our priority. We pray to the Lord.

For our Archdiocesan leaders, all priests, deacons, and lay leaders: that we may open our hearts to the Holy Spirit and participate in furthering the life and mission of the Church. We pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill: that God will suppress the Coronavirus, heal the sick, and strengthen all who are caring for the sick or seeking a cure. We pray to the Lord.

For greater awareness of the fragility of earth: that God will help us to be good stewards of the earth and work to preserve it for future generations. We pray to the Lord.

For all who have died: that they may find mercy as they approach the throne of grace. We pray to the Lord.
